Buyer Demographics

The following list outlines recent buyer groups in the New Westminster new home marketplace. These groups have been identified by Altus at presentation centers, project launches, events and through interviews with sales staff and developers active in the target area:

- First time buyer segments - Buyers in from this group typically originate from Richmond, Tri-cities, Burnaby and New Westminster areas and are looking for entry level condominium product. This segment is interested in product close to transit and amenities
- Price sensitive local move ups - This segment of the market owns older housing stock (often multi-family) in the local market or in surrounding submarkets and are looking to upgrade finish or size. They are attracted to both woodframe and concrete condominium product. They are price constrained and will look for the lowest priced units in a particular unit plan
- Investors - Investors have been active in the New Westminster new home submarket but typically this node is more ethnically diverse. These buyers tend to be attracted to concrete product with transit orientation
- Older price sensitive local downsizers - Local, older downsizers and retirees, predominantly price sensitive, are also consuming condominium product in New Westminster. These buyers look for walkable locations, views and unit plans that can accommodate house sized furniture and visiting guests
